

Canadian History 11 Assignment #2

Canada's First Peoples have been subjected to many historic and present day social injustices. Some of these include:

- Loss of culture and language
- Breakdowns in family connections between elderly and youth
- Abuse suffered in the residential school system
- Unresolved long standing land claims
- Treaty Rights that were not honoured.
- Ongoing racism and misunderstanding

Research one of these issues and examine the historical roots that have contributed to this injustice. Write a well constructed essay (1 ½-3 pages) on one or more of the topics above. Get started on the right track by using the guidelines and information below:
