

Europe Trip final meeting

What you get today...

- Up to date itinerary, with flight and hotel information with packing recommendations/requirements
- Telephone Chain Chart (in case of emergency or change of details)
- EF calling card, backpack and luggage tag

Key people at EF

- Caroline Generalovic, Tour Manager with EF
- Bettina Althaller, Tour Director
  - EF # 1-800-263-2806

Packing Reminders

- One suitcase, one carry on (be mindful of restrictions)
- Pack light (stairs/on and off bus) but for a variety of weather
- Leave unnecessary jewellery/sentimental or expensive items at home. If you don't need it, don't bring it...

New Information..

- We were offered two new night excursions – a ghost walk/Jack the Ripper tour of London as well as a guided tour to and up the Eiffel Tower.
- Students voted and agreed they wanted to (a) attend and (b) pay in advance. The total for those is $54 paid by March 1st.

Travelling Companions

- We are travelling with a small group (11 students; four adults) from a public school in St. Catherines , Ont.
- There are some difference in rules but Millwood's rules prevail with Millwood's students.

Money Matters

- RBC in Lr Sackville has been notified of our needs.
- However, I was told if they have no Euros or Pounds on hand, a morning order should result in receipt within two business days; an afternoon order is 3 business days

Day of Departure

- Attendance with the school will be taken care of for that day
- We meet at 1:30 pm at Stanfield Airport for check in and goodbye
- We have a layover in Ottawa (bring Canadian funds so you can grab supper) then overnight to London. Dress comfortably but remember - we land in London and we are on the go all day

While Away

- Students:
  - Remember to be safe (pickpockets), follow the rule of 3
  - Remember to respect the hotel (sound/luggage)
- Parents:
  - Remember not to worry if they don't call you each night...

Return

- We fly
  - Munich to Frankfurt (hour and a half layover)
  - Frankfurt to Montreal (two and a half hour layover)
  - Montreal to Halifax, landing at 7:39 p.m.
  - (total travelling time: approximately sixteen hours)

- Photos -
  - bring in your favourites on CD/USB or e-mail to mhseurope@es-can.com
  - I will compile all to a DVD and everyone gets a copy.
- AOB?
