

Types of Criminal Offences

Fill in the Blank

Use the vocabulary words in Chapter 9 of your textbook (pages 224-245) to fill in the blanks with the correct criminal offence.

1. Intentionally deceiving someone in order to cause a loss of property, money or service is known as _____.
2. Wounding, maiming, disfiguring, or endangering the life of a victim is known as _____.
3. You could be charged with _____ if you stole a radio that has the value of $187.
4. Reporting a crime to the police when such a crime has not really occurred is _____.
5. Theft of an automobile that has a value of $9800 is _____.
6. Taking property permanently or temporarily without the owner's permission is called _____.
7. Touching of a sexual nature that is not invited or consensual is called _____.
8. Culpable homicide that is not murder or infanticide is called _____.
9. _____ is a person's honest belief that he or she owns or has permission to use the article in question.
10. _____ is the theft of personal property through the use of violence.
11. _____ is the threatening or actual physical contact of a person without consent.

What are they charged with?

For each of the situations described below, identify the offence committed and whether it is a summary, indictable or hybrid offence.

1. While walking down a quiet street, Al is approached by Bill, who forces him at gun point to hand over his wallet

Offence: _____

Level: _____

2. Simon goes to a supermarket to buy meat for his dinner. He replaces a $6.99 price sticker with a $3.49 sticker and pays the cashier $3.49.

Offence: _____

Level: _____

3. Lenore has the brakes of her car repaired at a local garage. She writes a cheque for $297 and picks up her car. When the mechanic attempts to cash the cheque, the teller tells him that Lenore has not account at that bank.

Offence: _____

Level: _____

4. Sasha befriends a man at a local bar, not realizing that he is an undercover police officer. Later that evening, Sasha sells the officer some cocaine for $125.

Offence: _____

Level: _____

5. At a RIDE stop, an officer smells alcohol on Jim's breath. The officer suspects that he has been drinking and asks him to take a Breathalyzer test. Jim refuses to take the test.

Offence: _____

Level: _____

6. Kaleigh arrives home to find the back door of her house forced open. She discovers that a sum of money and her jewellery are missing. A suspect is apprehended by the police and charged.

Offence: _____

Level: _____

7. Brad and Meg are working at a hiking camp. One evening, Brad touches Meg's breasts without her consent. The next day, a police investigation is underway and Brad is charged.

Offence: _____

Level: _____

8. John, the local bootlegger, sells alcohol to Sam. John thought he was selling grain alcohol, when in fact it was wood alcohol. Sam dies and John is arrested.

Offence: _____

Level: _____